CHES Ontario recognizes the value of our “Long Term” members, with 20-year and 30-year recognitions. These members who keep renewing their membership and attending the conferences, allow us to continue offering the benefits to all members.

- Networking opportunities that provide real-life solutions to everyday problems
- Membership in a professional Community of Practice aimed at raising the bar on healthcare facility management
- Expert advice from peers on codes and standards
- Professional advancement within all facets of healthcare facilities management
- Enrichment of your knowledge and skills through timely educational programs, manuals, and technical documents
- Complimentary subscription to the Canadian Healthcare Facilities Journal
- Representation and participation in advocacy efforts focused on improving codes, standards, and regulations
- National and Regional conferences featuring educational sessions, keynote speakers, and trade show components
- Employment postings
- Online Forum
- Online Document Archive
- Bursaries/Scholarship Programme
- National Awards Programme
- Top ten CSA Codes and Standards on-line

A restaurant gift card has been sent to 23 regular members who have been continuous members for more than 20 years, to have a celebration at our expense. These members are among the “elite” few that have endured for these many years in an industry that has experienced many changes. Their continued dedication is appreciated in support of our Society.
